THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Friday, June 8, 1866.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For Daily, per year,	$10 00
" six months,	5 00
" one month,	1 00
" two months,	2 00
Semi-Weekly, per year,	5 00
Weekly, per year,	3 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

Comparing Records.

The editor of the Standard some days ago, declared that he was ready to compare records with Gov. Worth or any of his friends. Our correspondent "Historicus," to-day without intending it, throws down the gauntlet, to the redoubtable editor of the Standard. Will the editor take it up and draw a fair comparison between his own record and that of Governor Worth?

These old files and journals are terrible things. How well did Job understand the force of the appeal to our past actions and words, when he exclaimed, "O that mine enemy would write a book."

As a means of refreshing the memories of our modern Union men par excellence, we give the vote in the N. C. Senate in January 1863 in favor of Mr. Arendell's resolutions, and the vote in favor of Mr. Grisson's resolutions in the House at the same time. The resolutions are given verbatim by our correspondent "Historicus." If the votes on that occasion and the strong endorsement by the editor of the Standard, do not take the wind out of the Union sails of some of the "so-called," then we are mistaken.

In the Senate, January 27th, 1863, the following gentlemen voted for Mr. Arendell's resolutions, given by "Historicus." We copy from the Journal:

"Those who voted in the affirmative are:

In the House on the same day, "those who voted in the affirmative are:

Messrs. Allison, Albritton, Alford, Amis, Avera, Bernhardt, Barringer, Beall, Benbury, Berry, Best, Bizzell, Bryan, Bryson, Burgin, Barns, Bynum, Carpenter, Carson, Cowles, Craig, Davis, Fleming, Flynt, Foust, Fowle, Foy, Gentry, Greene, Grissom, Hampton, Harris, of Chatham, Harrison, Hawes, Henderson, Henry, of Henderson, Headen, Hollingsworth, Hooper, Howard, Horton, Ingram, Jenkins, Joyner, Judkins, Keener, Kelly, Kerner, Laws, Long, Lyle, Mann, of Hyde, Munn, of Pasquotank, McAden, McCormick, McKay, McNeill, McRae, Parks, Patterson, Pearce, Richardson, Riddick, Rhodes, Robbins, Russ, Shepherd, Sherwood, Shober, Smith, of Washington, Spruill, Stancil, Yann, Waddell, Wallen, Walser, Watson, Wellborn, Williams, Woodall, Young, of Iredell and Young, of Yancey.—82.

Now, let it be remembered, that Ex-Governor Holden contends that several of the above named gentlemen, with himself, are now "unmistakably loyal" men. but charges upon others in the above list that they are not so loyal, if indeed they are not traitors. Will the Ex-Gov. so far enlighten the public, as to give a sensible reason why such men as Messrs. Eure, Graham, Smith, of Anson, Smith of Macon, Whitford, Wiggins, Allison, Amis, Berry, Burgin, Carson, Foy, Hampton, Jenkins, Joyner, Keener, McAden, Patterson, Shepherd, Shober and many others of the above, are not as good, loyal and true men now, as Messrs. Arendell, Brown, Jones, Lassiter, Carpenter, Gentry, Grissom, McKay, Russ and others, whom it claims to be so loyal?

Treasurer's Report.

By some unaccountable oversight, we have failed heretofore to publish the brief report of Mr. Treasurer Battle to the Convention. It will be found in to-day's issue. We have known no public officer who brings to the duties of his office more patient labor, more thorough investigation and a greater anxiety to equalize the burdens of taxation, and to remove all grounds of complaint, than Mr. Battle. If any feel aggrieved it is only necessary to call attention to it, and they may rely upon it, that nothing but a fair and proper construction of the law, will prevent his doing ample justice to all.

Mr. Conigland's Proposition.

We are glad to learn that Edward Conigland, Esq., of Halifax, has issued a prospectus proposing "to publish in regular order, the proceedings of the Convention, allowing each member who really discussed a question, to report himself within reasonable limits."

This work would be valuable, and he will give his close personal attention to the publication, provided a sufficient number of copies shall be subscribed for at $5 each, to justify the undertaking. The qualifications of Mr. C. for such a work are of the highest order, and we bespeak for him the largest patronage.

Washington Mission.

We learn that this subject was very fully discussed on yesterday, by Messrs. Dick, Phillips, and others. We regret that we could not hear the discussion. Mr. Dick always speaks well and plausibly, even upon the wrong side, as in this case. Mr. Phillips, we submit, took the proper view of the subject, and, we are told, made a powerful speech.

THE LATE CAPT. AUGUSTUS H. MARTIN.—The remains of Capt. Augustus H. Martin, of 54th N. C. Regiment, passed through this place, in charge of his widow and brother, Col. Leland Martin, destined for their final resting place, in the church yard, Brier Creek, Wilkes county, N. C.—Statesville American.

Does Gov. Worth endorse this language of his organ?—this defiant and insolent language which it uses towards the Convention? If he does he ought to be "handled" by the President. We have dallied with treason and traitors long enough.—Standard.

We have used neither "defiant" nor "insolent language" towards the Convention. The Standard had, in a spirit of dictation, urged the Convention to adopt in advance the programme of Mr. Howard of the U. S. Senate and to send a commission to Washington to hob-nob with the Radical members of Congress. We knew that the loyal people of North Carolina, who are the true friends of the Union and of President Johnson, would not sanction either measure, and we admonished the Convention not to adopt either, and thus provoke the ire of the people of the State. In this there was neither defiance nor insolence.

We do not know that Gov. Worth endorses our language or not. We know that Gov. Worth most heartily sympathises with President Johnson and that he does not endorse Mr. Howard's programme; and we know that Ex-Gov. Holden does not sympathise with the President and does favor the Radical programme.

The Standard wants the President to "handle" Gov. Worth. Between the President and Gov. Worth there is confidence and good feeling. If the President ought to "handle" Gov. Worth for agreeing with him, what ought he to do with Gov. Holden for forsaking him?—What ought he to do with one of his Provisional Governors, who officially published to the world that he, the President, had pardoned over 500 persons, when, in fact, he had pardoned none of them?

"We have dallied with treason and traitors long enough." Yes, the Government has dallied long enough with such traitors as those who preached and taught the people secession, then advocated Union—then advocated the revolution until they got whipped, then turned traitors to the Confederacy, then advocated Union awhile, and now are ready to turn-traitors to the Constitutional Republic framed by our fathers. President Johnson says, those are the real traitors and disunionists, who oppose a Constitutional restoration and Union of the States.

We ask the Standard seriously, if it is not as plain, as a man's nose on his face, if the ultra Radical leaders, which it is now supporting, are not seeking to subvert the government of the Republic, to change entirely its organic character, to destroy the principle of Federal Union, demolish the inherent powers and rights of the States, and convert the government into a centralized Democracy without restraint or check, ultimately to result in a military despotism? If this be so, who are the traitors?

Serious affair at Goldsboro'.

A Negro Attacks a Police Officer and is killed—Another Negro Mortally Wounded—the Policeman's Injuries Serious—The Spouter Galloway the Instigator—Galloway's Flight, and the Action of the Military Authorities.

A friend has furnished us with the following particulars of a bloody affair which occurred yesterday in Goldsboro':

It seems that a negro was arrested on Saturday for theft, and his arrest seems to have incensed the negroes generally, who swore vengeance on the whites and threatened to release the prisoner.

A very badly-disposed negro, name not known, made threats on Sunday and yesterday against the whites and police. One or two citizens hearing his threats, reported him to the Mayor, who ordered his arrest.

While Mr. George Morrow, chief of police, was taking him to the guard-house, the negro drew a knife and stabbed Morrow several times, whereupon Morrow shot the negro, killing him instantly.

Another negro, named Jim Jones, came up and commenced firing at Morrow, when the whites shot him. He is now lying in jail in a very critical condition, and is thought to be mortally wounded.

Morrow's wounds are very serious, though it is hoped they are not mortal. He was stabbed in three places—in the shoulder, side and back.

A negro, well known by most people in Eastern North Carolina, named Galloway, who is said to have been the instigator of this affair, has escaped and cannot be found.

It is understood that orders have been issued by Maj. Stickney, in charge of the freedmen here, for the capture of Galloway, dead or alive.—Newbern Commercial.

STATE CONVENTION.—The message of Gov. Worth to this body will be found on another page, and will be perused with interest. A motion to adjourn sine die was voted down, and the session is likely to be prolonged. Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, had introduced a resolution to grant amnesty for all offences, except murder, committed against the laws of the State previous to the 15th. of April, 1865. Mr. C. stated that in many of the Counties it was impossible to convict rebels, whereas Union men were found guilty and punished, hence the necessity of a general pardon. We think a majority of the crimes, however, were committed by tories, Mr. Caldwell's "Union men," and that his object is to screen them from punishment. This class of men remained at home, while the "rebels" were in the army—were absent. Mr. Caldwell's "Union men" were they who burnt houses, stole property, drove women and children from their homes, broke up religious meetings, perpetrated murders, &c. They were a numerous class in several of the Western counties. The imputation against Confederates is, no doubt, very unjust.—Statesville American.

TRIAL OF MAJ. GEE.—The Raleigh correspondent of the New York Herald thus writes concerning this interesting case:

The Military Committee which has been in session for several weeks at this place engaged in the trial of Major John H. Gee, late of the Confederate service and keeper of the prison pen at Salisbury, for cruelty to Union prisoners, has adjourned until the 11th inst. It is estimated that the trial, up to the present time, has cost the Government a hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and yet, they have failed to establish an iota of proof criminating the prisoner. Per contra, it is shown that he did all he could, with the means at his command, to alleviate the sufferings of the Union men in his custody. The authorities at Washington should forthwith discontinue the trial before a hundred thousand more is expended, censure the Court for its prodigality and discharge the prisoner.

STATE CONVENTION.

ADJOURNED SESSION.

THURSDAY, June 7, 1866.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock A. M.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, from the committee on State amnesty, reported a substitute for the ordinance on that subject, heretofore referred.

Mr. Wilson, from the committee on the Stay Law, reported an ordinance to amend said law. After some discussion the ordinance was again re-committed.

Mr. Mebane, from a select committee, reported an ordinance in relation to county debts incurred in aid of the rebellion, recommending its passage.

Mr. Logan, from a select committee, reported back the ordinance to authorize the Fayetteville and Florence Rail Road Company to establish a National Bank in the town of Fayetteville, recommending its passage.

Mr. McIvor, introduced the following:

Resolved, That the Hons. B. F. Moore, Bedford Brown, Lewis Thompson, Nathaniel Boyden and Alfred Dockery, be appointed to wait upon the President of the United States and inform him that the Convention of the people of North Carolina, called together under his authority, is about to close the labors for which it was convened, and to give to him the highest assurances of the confidence of the people of this State, of their gratitude for his magnanimity, and of their determination to look to the Union of the States, under the Constitution, as the only hope of safety and freedom; and that they confer with him as to any further action by this Convention.

Mr. Buxton moved a suspension of the rules and urged the passage of the resolution.

Mr. N. A. McLean addressed the Convention, he was one of the committee on Mr. McDonald's resolutions. He objected to those resolutions in the original form, and found himself unable to endorse the report of the present committee. Fully endorsing the policy of President Johnson, who had shown himself a statesman and a patriot, and as earnestly desiring North Carolina to be restored to her relations with the general government as any one on the floor, yet might we not by the course now proposed, embarrass and not sustain the President? What can we do that we have not done? Our late session had repealed the ordinance of secession, had emancipated the slaves, repudiated the war debt, &c. In addition to this, resolutions of our loyalty were adopted and forwarded to Washington city. Our late Legislature attempted to remove even the appearance of disloyalty, and assurances of our feeling in this respect were forwarded to Washington.

He had great respect for the Commissioners proposed, if any be sent,—he certainly had no sort of objection to the gentlemen proposed.—Yet, he now doubted the policy of sending a delegation to Washington. The President already knows our wishes and our views. With whom would the Commissioners confer? With the President, or with Congress? He hoped, at this late day of the Convention, a policy of such doubtful import would be well considered. For one, with the present lights before him, he could not vote for the resolution.

Mr. McDonald, of Moore, said that the resolutions he had introduced, had been revised by a Committee, and he had endeavored, on yesterday, to secure their consideration; but the resolution now offered would accomplish his object. The Commission proposed met his entire approval. He proceeded to urge immediate favorable action in the premises. If this is refused, he had discharged his duty.

Mr. Winston opposed the suspension of the rules and moved that the resolution be printed.

The question recurring, the rules were suspended. Yeas 60. Nays 39.

The question being on the passage of the resolution, on motion of Mr. Bingham, it was ordered to be printed, and made the special order for the hour of 5 o'clock P. M.

Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, introduced a resolution that from and after to-day, the Convention meet daily at 9 o'clock A. M., and adjourn at 4 o'clock P. M; and that no evening sessions be held until otherwise ordered.

Adopted, under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Dick moved to take up for present consideration the resolutions reported by a select committee, as a substitute for the resolutions of Mr. McDonald, of Moore, to send Commissioners to Washington.

The question being on suspending the rules, Mr. Dick said that it was necessary to send a Commission to Washington. We could no longer occupy our present position. All changes of Constitution were utterly useless until the State was restored to the General Government. Unless this question is decided, all this work would have to be done over again. The radical majority in Congress is sustained by the masses of the Northern people, and in this controversy between the Congress and the President, we should ascertain what to do to strengthen the President's hands.

Mr. D. thought we had little to hope from the Fall elections at the North, for even were the radicals reduced to a bare majority—they still would have power to exclude us. He again characterized as highly impolitic, the election to high representative positions of men who had figured prominently in the rebellion.

Mr. Phillips addressed the Convention, arguing at length the inutility of sending a Commission to Washington, as contemplated by the resolutions.

The President's terms of reconstruction were known and had been fully complied with, and Congress had already set forth in plain, idiomatic English the terms of its policy.

The authorities of the government had but one way of speaking, and that was by Legislation according to the forms of the Constitution, and he did not suppose that any one imagined anything could be done by any Commission we may send, to stay the passage of measures not yet matured. In our present darkness and incertitude, he proposed that we should remain silent and do nothing. If the Commission were sent and consulted Congress, the President would be naturally jealous. If the President were consulted Congress would be jealous. If the Commission should go from one to the other it would secure the respect and confidence of neither, and in this event the resolutions approving the President's policy would be worse than waste paper.

Regarded by a majority of Congress as the rebellious representatives of a rebellious people, could it be supposed, for a moment, that any embassy we may send, can induce a change of Congressional policy,—a policy sustained by a two-thirds vote over the President's veto!—Whatever tended to a restoration of the State to the Union, commended itself to his judgment; but he regarded this as a time when silence and a patient waiting for further developments would be both politic and dignified.

Mr. Dick replied briefly, moving in conclusion, that the resolutions under consideration, together with those introduced by Mr. McIvor, this morning, be made the special order for 12 o'clock to-morrow.

Mr. Moore, of Wake, moved to amend, by making the amended Constitution a special order daily, from eleven o'clock A. M., to 2 o'clock P. M., until disposed of. This amendment was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Dick, the resolutions specified, were made the special order for 2 o'clock, P. M., to-morrow.

Mr. Furches (by leave) introduced an ordinance providing for the appointment of Justices of the Peace.

An ordinance repealing the provisions of an act of the General Assembly—in relation to negroes and persons of color or of mixed blood, passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.

An ordinance to repeal sec. 11 of an act of the General Assembly, concerning negroes and persons of color or of mixed blood, was put on its second reading.

A substitute for this ordinance (proposed by the Select Committee) to which it was referred, was discussed at some length.

Several amendments were offered and pending action, the Convention adjourned until nine o'clock, to-morrow.

Historical Reminiscences.

In January 1863, the following resolutions were introduced into the House of Commons and the Senate of North Carolina:

"WHEREAS, Various slanderous reports have been circulated both in the State and out of it, reflecting on the loyalty of the members of this Legislature and the people of the State, and ascribing to them hostility to the Confederate Government and a desire to re-construct the Union; therefore be it unanimously

Resolved, That as the representatives of the people, and in our own behalf as individual citizens of the State, we protest against and denounce these accusations as entirely false in letter and in spirit, as calculated to misrepresent the sentiments of those who have never faltered in the support of all constitutional measures for the prosecution of the war, and as tending to produce jealousies and heart-burnings among a people who have sealed their devotion to the cause of Southern Independence with their blood, upon the proudest battle-fields of this revolution. That the charge, of a desire on the part of this Legislature or any portion of it, to conflict with the Confederate Government, or to embarrass the President in the prosecution of the war, is grossly untrue, illiberal and slanderous. That we hereby pledge ourselves most heartily and emphatically to the most vigorous constitutional war policy, promising in the name of North Carolina, the most liberal contribution of men and money to the support of it, and protesting against any settlement of the struggle which does not secure the independence of the Confederate States of America.

Resolved, That the Governor be requested to communicate a copy of these resolutions to the Governors of the several States of the Confederacy, and also, to our Senators and Representatives in Congress, to be laid before their respective bodies."

The resolutions passed both Houses by nearly unanimous votes. The Raleigh Standard of January the 30th, 1863, then edited by his Ex Provisional Excellency, W. W. Holden, published an editorial article concerning these resolutions and the votes on their passage, of which the following is an extract, to-wit:

"RESOLUTIONS VINDICATING THE CHARACTER OF NORTH CAROLINA—INTERESTING PROCEEDINGS.

The proceedings of the two Houses of our General Assembly, on Tuesday last, were unusually interesting. Reports having been circulated, both in this State and out of it, that a large portion of our Legislature were untrue to the South, and were "plotting,"—to use the language of that organ of Jews and renegade Yankees, the Richmond Enquirer—"to break the unity of the Confederacy," resolutions were introduced in both Houses, vindicating the character of our State against this slander, and re-asserting the determination of our people to perform their whole duty in the pending struggle for independence. These resolutions were introduced in the Senate by Mr. Arendell, of Carteret and Jones, and in the House by Capt. Grissom, of Granville. They will be found in the proceedings of Tuesday, in our paper to-day. They were ably and eloquently sustained in the Senate by Messrs. Arendell, Brown, Warren, Smith, of Macon, and Sharp; and in the House by Messrs. Grissom, Amis, and others. They embody no new views or sentiments of the Conservatives of this State, but they are the same uniformly entertained by them since the proclamation of Lincoln calling for troops, in April, 1861.

But will it be believed that these resolutions—so full and clear in their expressions of devotion to the common cause, and so appropriate in the manner in which they repel the charge of disloyalty against our people, were opposed and voted against by a portion of the members of the two Houses? It is even so. In the Senate, Mr. Carraway of Martin, Mr. Copeland of Northampton, Mr. Drake of Warren, Mr. Murrill of Onslow, Mr. White of Gaston, and Mr. Young of Mecklenburg; and in the House, Mr. Brown of Mecklenburg, Mr. Cobb of Edgecombe, Mr. Costner of Lincoln, Mr. Crawford of Wayne, Mr. Gilliam of Rockingham, Mr. Hodges of Duplin, Mr. Lemmonds of Union, Mr. Love of Haywood, and Mr. Rives of Wayne, VOTED IN THE NEGATIVE. That these gentlemen are true to their country we entertain no doubt; but what a record have they made for the public enemy, for the eyes of their constituents, and for posterity! It will be known every where, and the enemies of the country will hear, that fifteen members of the Legislature of North Carolina have solemnly recorded their votes in opposition to resolutions which denounce a reconstruction of the Union, and pledge the State to the continued prosecution of the war. The reasons which influenced these members cannot be known, either to our enemies or to posterity. They will see only the record, and from that they will draw their own conclusions. Thank God there is no Conservative name in that list. Every name recorded in the negative is either a Destructive or a sympathizer with that class of public men."

It is not the purpose of the writer to make any comments on the facts above stated. He has however thought that the facts themselves, taken from the Raleigh Standard, of January 30th, 1863, may be somewhat interesting to the student of North Carolina history.

HISTORICUS.

TRINITY COLLEGE.—A correspondent of the New York Watchman writing from High Point in this State, says: Five miles South is Trinity College. We went over there and saw President Craven, presiding with his usual firmness and dignity, over the exercises of this truly useful institution. The College has just started again, and is getting along finely; already quite a body of fine-looking young men have gathered there. More are coming in every day, and a future of great usefulness seems to lie before Trinity. Her losses by the war have been great, and the blood of her sons has been poured out on almost every battle-field; but with the return of peace she has resumed her mission and is pressing forward in the field of education to gain the victories of peace.

For the Sentinel.

Old Peter Shard, a long time ago, wrote a book entitled "Quid pro Quo; or a Theory of Compensation." From the writings of these quaint old fathers, may be sometimes gathered very instructive lessons. The following extract of what he calls a "Corybantic Jingle Jangle, charming some people as Bees are charmed with the clanking of brazen kettles and pans," is rather suggestive of what seems to have happened in our day and generation:

"Soe tenderly kind and gratious is Nature, our Mother, that she seldom or never puts upon us any Grievaunce without making Us some Amends, which, if not a full and perfect Equivalent, is yet a great Solace or Salve to the Sore. As is notably displaid in the Case of such of our Fellow Creatures as undergoe the Loss of Heering, and are thereby deprived of the Comfort and Entertainment of Natural Sounds. In lew whereof the Deaf Man, as testified by mine own Experience, is regaled with an inward Musick that is not vouchsafed unto a Person who hath the compleet Usage of his Ears. For note, that the selfsame Condition of Boddy which is most apt to bring on a Surdity,—namely, a general Relaxing of the delicate and subtile Fibres of the Human Nerves, and mainly such as belong and propinque to the Auricular Organ, this very Unbracing which silences the Tympanum, or drum, is the most instrumental Cause in producing a Consort in the Head. And, in particular, that affection which the Physitians have called Tinnitus, by reason of its Resemblance to a Ring of Bells."

But for the antiquated style of this extract, it might be supposed that the happy man who could testify, by his own experience, all these inward delights of a deaf man, belonged to our own age. We could almost place our finger, experimentally, in a tentative or provisional way, on the very individual who has placed himself in this said condition, with the beatitude so beautifully pictured.

Our own Ex. P. G., is surely the happiest of men. When the whole country is ringing with the story of his certifying the pardon of about five hundred rebels (so-called) just before an election last autumn—in which election he is supposed to have had some little interest—when not a mother's son of said rebels (so-called) had been so pardoned, how blest is he, that he is so extremely deaf that none of this discordant jingling is able to reach his Ex-Gubernatorial ears, nor in the least to disturb his Ex-Royal repose! These campanulary noises are nothing to him. These tell-tale iron tongues, "hung in their mouths of metal," may peal out the infamy of the act, to the crack of doom; they trouble him not, for he is extremely deaf. He hath bells of his own, of sweeter tune, within his own precious head. These musical inward bells have a gentle and grateful tinkle. They speak only of pleasures and honors—past, and to come. Their music is not to be marred by these hoarse and discordant manifestations without. With the dactylic notes of Governor—Gövernor—dancing through every cranny of that honored and happy head,—tambourining joyously along the subtle fibres, and careering around and among his brains with the most dulcifying abandon, what room can there be in those noisy cerebral regions for sounds from without, of such ominous and hateful dissonance?—The little bell of John Rosemond, having tinkled out, to the Ex-P. G's. great satisfaction, the musical jingle of Governor, fourteen or fifteen times, was incontinently, even before the melody had died away, transferred to his Ex-Provisional head, and swung on a bar extending from the occiput thereof, to its coronal suture, and has kept up its cheery dingdong to the hour in which this history is written. The caged starling had but one little song, "I can't get out." The Bell we wot of hath but one little refrain. "Governor! Governor! Governor!" It hath a dying swell, is beautifully daetytic, and very melodious. Nothing like Provisional, Ex-Provisional, nor even the stark naked significant Ex hath admittance there. These be gross impertinencies and vastly worse than those manifold surplages, so contumeliously rejected by lawyers.

There are some unreasonable people who deem it becoming in the Ex P. G. to say something on the interesting subject of that list of apocryphal Executive pardons. They maliciously do suggest, nay they stoutly affirm, that of the number of about five hundred impenitent rebels, "stricken, impoverished and ruined" wretches, published as pardoned on the eve of the last Gubernatorial election, by the sympathising Ex-P. G., not one had really received his pardon. With a maladroit headlong zeal, they assert that His Excellency, moved and seduced by the instigations of ——, something, hath published and declared a palpable ——, Moses! Unreasonable indeed be such people, yea, and very impertinent. What can it be to them what a live Provisional Governor doeth? If let alone such presumptuous people may come to that height of impudence, that they may gainsay and speak disrespectfully of sundry and various of his Bank and Rail Road and other appointments, as though they had been decently and wisely made! But let these idle cavillers know that,

1st. It cannot be admitted as charged that about five hundred unpardoned rebels (so-called) were falsely certified by the then Provisional Governor, (who writteth Honorable before his name,) to have been thoroughly whitewashed, and thus made worthy to vote—provided, nevertheless, notwithstanding, and so forth! Is it either respectful or decent to say, or even to think of A GOVERNOR! (God bless him!)—a Governor, (of whatever sort,) of honest old North Carolina!—(God bless her too!) that he has lied like a dog!!! Oh breathe it not! Tell it not in Gath! And that too, of our model statesman! the very pattern of political truth!—the very soul of political honor! It cannot be!

2nd. Charges of this heinous nature should be very exact. Supposing that instead of "about five hundred," there should be proved to have been only four hundred and fifty, how would these censorious people feel?

3rd. Whether the number be about five hundred, or only four hundred and fifty, it is none of their business. It was done in the Provisional regime, in which they had no part.

4th. Their indignation and wailings are all labor lost, for the Ex. P. G. will never hear them. Sympathizing as he assures us he does, and ever will with this "stricken, impoverished and ruined people," he may lend them many things. "Wrapped in the solitude of his own originality," a la Counsellor Phillips, he may "lend enchantment to the view." He may lend them money, but he will never "lend them his ears." He hath none to lend. However bountifully he may have been provided by nature with these ornamented appendages, the sudden accession of greatness, when thrust upon him bodily, was also thrust into his ears (so-called) and he became deaf as a post, or as Dame Eleanor Spearing. He heareth nothing now that can grate harshly on the auricle. There is music, inward music, that can much more cunningly charm the—Ex. Governor's breast. When the little Bell is chiming throughout his Gubernatorial pericranium, Governor! Governor!—what blundering John Hook shall dare to intrude his profane person into the royal presence, with his abominable cry of beef! Who shall disturb his delights? "That strain again!" quoth the enraptured Ex. P. G. "Give me excess of it."

5th. Though we affirm the innocence and truth of the Ex-P. G., and though he should by no means let himself down from his lofty eminence, to deny or explain these matters, complained of by common people and those even of the baser sort, there is a mode in which His Ex-Excellency might condescend to satisfy these common people, without a sacrifice of either his political or personal dignity. "The Boys" have heretofore got him into sundry ridiculous scrapes by making him father their follies. Let them now make him some amends by volunteering in their own names, a true statement of what was actually done just before the last Gubernatorial election, in this matter of certifying pardons falsely, as it is charged. Did they do this thing, as well as so many others of an injurious character for which the Ex-P. G. has so signally suffered? Or who did it? The statesman himself need not be disturbed in his beatitudes. Let the bells keep on jingling and ringing in his head. Let him dream on, and be happy. He need know nothing about these things. But let the truth come out.—Were there 500 or 450, or none? The members of the Convention now sitting might like to know these matters before they can gracefully submit to be used, as he has several times proposed to use them in rectifying the errors of Governor Worth, and specially those of the late Legislature. They might possibly desire to be assured of the truthfulness of one who seems to aspire to be their great leader and guide. They might possibly prefer to follow the lead of one in whose statements of fact at least, they could implicitly trust.

Appropos of Bells. The Ex. P. G. is what old Peter Shard calls "a mighty Ringer." He hath furnished a large one for his own Belfry. He is suspected from his practices of having some rather high-toned English notions about Bells. The aforesaid old Peter saith, in his queer old Folio, "Your Englishman doth hang them at the head of his horse, at the neck of his sheep—on the cap of his foot, and on the heels of his hawk." From the vociferous Tri-weekly tintinnabulations, of the Hargett street bell, it would strike the wayfaring man, that the Royal Ringer was claiming the above as good old English rights appertaining to his own manorial preserves—acquired rather Provisionally to be sure—but which he seems determined to assert nunc pro tunc, with genuine Norman ferocity. In some of his manipulations about the necks of members of the Convention, he is said to have found himself "belling the cat."

Y. Y.

P. S.—Y. Y. is proud to be known, and to be so highly appreciated by his ancient and exemplary crony, the brave Ex. P. G. "Now is the winter of our discontent made glorious summer" again. We are persuaded, as we look on his picture, that we are once more a worthy par nobile fratrum. "Come, gie 's your han' my trusty frere."

Y. Y. is beyond measure happy, also, in being able to assure his once alienated but now reconstructed friend and brother, that he hath, for a considerable space of time, eschewed gormandising and other vices—lying included—and is fast becoming hopefully pious. Let's ring the bells!

The public is not exactly informed of the number of pardons affirmed to have been granted just before the election, which were not. Will the Ex. P. G., who knows so many things, please to solve the doubt? and whether any "gory locks" are shaken at him? and if so, can he repeat, "thou can'st not say I did it?"

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

State Medical Society.

This body convened in the Supreme Court Room of the Capitol, in this city, on Tuesday last, and adjourned after a harmonious and interesting session of two days. There was a very respectable number of Physicians in attendance from various portions of the State, East, West, North and South, and numerous auxiliary county societies were represented.—This was the first meeting since the war, and it was found no difficult task to revive the society, and to put its effective machinery again in healthy operation. A fine spirit of devotion to the science and practice of medicine prevailed, as well as of a determination to improve the profession and to place the society, that has done so much good in our State, upon a still firmer basis. This has been done and the society now presents better prospects of success, despite the depression of the times, than ever before; and we doubt not, it may be considered, as may the State Board of Medical Examiners, as fixed institutions of the State.

PRESIDENT.—Dr. William G. Thomas, Wilmington.

VICE PRESIDENTS.—Dr. E. Burke Haywood, Raleigh, Dr. R. H. Winborne Chowan, Co., Dr. William Barrow Northampton, Co., Dr. I. W. Jones, Salisbury.

TREASURER.—Dr. C. W. Graham, Duplin Co.

ORATOR.—Dr. M. Whitehead Salisbury.

The above elections were made by ballot.

Also, in like manner, the following named gentlemen were elected to constitute the Medical Board of Examiners for the State of North Carolina, a Board created in accordance with a previous act of the Legislature.

Dr. N. J. Pittman, to examine on Anatomy.

Dr. E. Burke Haywood, to examine on Surgery.

Dr. R. H. Winborne, to examine on Physiology.

Dr. S. S. Satchwell, to examine on Theory and Practice of Medicine and Hygiene.

Dr. J. J. Summerell, to examine on Obstetrics and Diseases of Women.

Dr. R. B. Haywood, to examine on Chemistry.

Dr. M. Whitehead, to examine on Materia Medica and Therapeutics.

It will be seen that there has been no sectionalism displayed in the election of this important Board, but the members have been wisely selected from different and distant sections of the State.

It may not be generally known that no medical man can collect his bills by law, who has commenced the practice in this State since the passage of the act creating the Board, unless after an examination he has a certificate from the Board, of his moral and professional qualifications. The Board meets annually in May to examine applicants, but to avoid unnecessary inconvenience, temporary licenses may be granted by any two members after an examination, to last till the regular meeting of the Board. We anticipate none but beneficial results from the appointment and operations of the Board.

In view of the want of mail facilities and the financial embarrassments of the times, it was thought best not to renew, for the present, the publication of the State Medical Journal.

Appropriate resolutions were passed in reference to the death of Dr. James H. Dickson, of Wilmington, a member of the Society, who had died since the last meeting, and eulogies were pronounced by Drs. Thomas and Satchwell upon the life and character of the deceased.—Proper notice was also taken of the recent death of one of its Honorary Members, Dr. E. D. Fenner, of New Orleans, a native of North Carolina.

Committees were appointed from different counties represented, to report at the next meeting on the diseases of their respective localities.

At a subsequent meeting of the Medical Board. Dr. William Little, of Raleigh, was elected Secretary and Treasurer.

The proceedings of this meeting of the Society, were ordered to be published in pamphlet form for distribution.

The next meeting will be held in the town of Tarboro', in the month of May 1867.

All honor and success to the State Medical Society, thus again brought into such a fine working condition. Amid the demoralization of the times, much good may be expected from the example and influence of the intelligent and honorable members who compose it, and are now giving the society a warm support. It has a deep hold, and justly too, upon the confidence and good will of the people, and gains steadily in popularity. We trust the regular members of the profession every where, will give it a hearty support, and form auxiliary county societies where none now exist. The objects are not alone to benefit medical science and improve the professors, but to protect the people from medical humbugs and impostures. The society also tends to develope medical talent, and to bring our promising medical men to public notice abroad. As evidence within the present year, two of our talented Physicians, Dr. William T. Howard, of Warrenton, and Dr. M. I. De Rosset, of Wilmington, have been elected adjunct profession of the University of Maryland at Baltimore. These are worthy appointments, and we record with pleasure this appreciation of the worth and talent of the profession of the State, and the evidence thus shown of the laudable objects and useful labors of the State Medical Society.

Treasurer's Report.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT OF NORTH-CAROLINA,
RALEIGH, May 1866.

Hon. JONATHAN WORTH, Governor:

SIR: Allow me to call your attention to difficulties and hardships which have occurred in the administration of the Revenue Law of the General Assembly.

The Ordinance of the Convention for providing Revenue for 1865, inposed a tax on persons carrying on business as merchants, &c., during the year. This tax was much complained of, on account of its retrospective character. The levy on purchases from the first of January to the passage of the Ordinance was severely felt, because imposed on business already settled, without an estimate of such tax as part of the expenses.

By act of the General Assembly entitled "Revenue" the persons above mentioned are subjected to new taxes on the same subjects, from the first of July, 1865, to the first of January, 1866.

In the case of Income, this hardship was guarded against by the provision, "that in estimating the income for the year preceding the 1st day of April, 1866, those subjects on which taxes have actually been paid, under the Revenue Ordinance of the Convention, shall not be included," but probably by inadvertence, this provision was not extended to other taxable subjects.

It is true, that by the 7th section of the Ordinance, "declaring what laws and ordinances are in force, the rates of taxation in force on the 28th May, 1861, were re-established, and most of those pursuing avocations taxed by the Revenue Ordinance of the Convention, were technically presumed to know, that, from the 18th day of October, 1865, to the 1st of January, 1866, those avocations were subjected to a double burden, that is to taxation under the Ordinance, and also under the act of the General Assembly. But it has come to my knowledge that the people of the State were not generally informed of this state of the law.

Another difficulty has been created by the clerical error of placing section 32d as a separate section, instead of including it as a part of section 30th.

The preamble of Schedule "B" directs the licenses under that schedule to expire on the first of July of each year, while section 32 as printed enacts, that all their licenses shall be for twelve months from the time the same are issued.

To cure these defects, I respectfully suggest the propriety of calling the attention of the Convention to this subject, recommending the passage of an Ordinance declaring—

1st. The act of Assembly entitled "Revenue," imposing taxes on purchases, sales and receipts, shall not be construed to extend to those purchases, sales or receipts, on which taxes have actually been paid, under the Revenue Ordinance of the Convention.

2d. When specific taxes have been imposed for licenses to use any article, or carry on any business for the year preceding the first day of July, 1866, one-half thereof shall only be payable, where taxes for the same purpose were actually paid under said Ordinance.

3d. Retailers of spirituous liquors, who paid the tax perscribed in section 11 of said Ordinance, shall be entitled to do business for the year for which such license was granted, without further license tax.

4th. The provisions of section 32, of Schedule B, of the Revenue act of Assembly, shall only extend to the license for distilling whiskey.

5th. In all cases where taxes are payable to the Sheriff or Collector without being listed, the Sheriff or Collector may administer an oath in order to ascertain the amount thereof. The passage of an Ordinance declaratory of the above principles, will I am persuaded, do more complete justice to all parties, and will make the Revenue act of the General Assembly as was intended by its framers.

Very respectfully,
KEMP P BATTLE,
Pub. Treasurer.

TORNADO.—On Tuesday afternoon last, the neighborhood of Dawson's Creek, in this county, twenty or twenty-five miles below Newbern, was visited by a most terrific tornado. The storm commenced between 3 and 4 o'clock, and continued for an hour or more. A harder blow cannot be remembered by the oldest inhabitant. In its course it visited the plantation of Mr. Solomon Broughton, blew down his stable, carriage house, and did much damage to his fences and timber.

Also on the plantation of Mr. John Hall, in the same neighborhood, the wind was terrific. Near his dwelling seven pine trees, near twenty inches through, were literally twisted off near the ground. Mr. H's fences were badly damaged.

Our informant tells us that this tornado extended for miles around and was even more severe on Lower Broad Creek. One dwelling house in that neighborhood was blown down, and everything it contained literally smashed to pieces. We hear of no lives being lost.

CATTLE DISEASE IN IREDELL.—Many milch cows and other cattle have died in this place and vicinity, recently, of a disease hitherto unknown. Not one has been known to recover. We have lost two cows of the disease within a few days. How far it extends, we do not know. The animal first has an enlargement of the stomach as if much swollen, then perhaps scours, followed with loss of appetite, foaming at the mouth, and an inclination to pitch at and fight every passing object—symptoms much like hydrophobia.—Statesville Statesman.

SLEEPING CARS.—Sleeping cars have recently become an institution on the central North Carolina Railroad. Mr. Wilkes, the excellent engineer and superintendent of that road, merits much credit for the energy he has displayed in perfecting this desideratum so much needed by the traveling public.—Sal. Banner.

U. S. Court Richmond---Mr. Davis.

RICHMOND, June 6.

In the case of Mr. Jeff. Davis the District Attorney, Mr. Chandler, said that he was not in the custody of the Court, but a prisoner of State, and that the Attorney General Speed could not be present. He therefore moved that the Court adjourn until October. Mr. Brady said he's client wanted a speedy trial and waived all form, but he knew he could not control the action of the Attorney General.

Judge Underwood said, that Chief Justice Chase expected to preside and had named October as convenient, and as the Attorney General Speed could not be there now, he granted the motion of the District Attorney. He advised the counsel of Mr. Davis to make application to the President for relief, as all power over the case rested with him. The Court adjourned.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, June 6.

Charles O'Conner Esq., senior counsel of Mr. Davis had an interview this morning with the President and Attorney General Speed in reference to the case of his client.

It is understood at the State department, that a contract has been made by the French Government with a trans-Atlantic Steamship Co., to transport the first detachment of French troops from Mexico to France in October. Marshall Bazarine accompanies this detachment.

The President has issued a proclamation for the purpose of sustaining the public peace and national honor. He warns all good citizens against aiding or abetting unlawful expeditions of those evil disposed persons against a nation with which this Government is at peace, and authorizes all Magistrates and other officers in the United States to exert their authority to defeat unlawful proceedings, and to bring to justice the offenders. Gen. Meade is also authorized to use the military force of the U. S., to prevent the carrying out of the expedition.

Fenians.

Gen. Hooker has issued orders to intercept all Fenians. Several hundred were caught at High Gate, in the vicinity of St. Albans. They were without a commander, and seemed about to invade Canada on their own hook. They were poorly armed and depended on the citizens for food.

Patterson Races.

Alexander Merrill, by Lexington, won the Derby stake at the Patterson races on yesterday. Nine started. Time, two minutes 55 seconds.

Pardons.

The President has pardoned 161 criminals and the number of political pardons is 12,381.

WASHINGTON, June 6.

Austria consents to the Congress and gives notice of her readiness to meet.

Reports were current at Prague that Prussian troops were advancing to the frontier. Kossuth was concerting action with Italy and endeavoring to raise a revolution in Hungary.

The Paris Bourse was buoyant at its close.

The proposed Congress of the powers of Europe was expected to assemble on the 5th or 10th of June. The London Times says, the result of the Conference will in no event effect the position of England.

It is stated that the Prussian-Italian treaty names May 28th, for the commencement of hostilities. Entrenchments near Vienna had been commenced.

It is reported that an Italian patrol had appeared on the frontier of Caffara, and took away half of the bridge on the Italian side of the river.

Financial and Commercial affairs in England, show great depression. The pressure for money indicates that the crisis is not yet over. The Times suggests the issue of interest bearing credit notes to relieve the pressure. Among the late suspensions, are W. K. Conbrough, an American cotton dealer. His liabilities are £150,000.

The Spanish Foreign Minister referred in the Cortes to the remarks made in the English Parliament, about the bombardment of Valparaiso, and stated that Spain would continue to act vigorously, if the South American Republics continued the war.

Cotton was declining. At Bombay 620 Coolies were burned on an Italian ship which they set on fire during a revolt.

On the 22d the Hero from New Orleans arrived at Bremen with 900 bales of cotton, which were landed on the quay at Liverpool from the ship J. L. Bryant from Apalachicola, damaged by fire.

We are pleased to be able to announce to the public that the Directors of the A. & N. C. R. R., who were in session here yesterday, have made a great reduction in fare on the road, which is to go upon operation next Monday. The through fare, we understand, from Morehead City to Goldsboro will be $4 50, and the local fare five cents per mile. The company are now issuing through tickets from Newbern or Morehead City to New York, either by Washington city or the old Bay line via Baltimore.—Newbern Times, 2d.

However this may be, it caused me, long and severe suffering. Providentially a friend furnished me with a few boxes of the HEPATIC PILLS, and the use of them has perfected a cure. In my family they have been used frequently with eminent success. Among my acquaintance, many cases originating from diseased liver, have been relieved and cured by them. A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyse the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his concentrated Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salves. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box fail taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in the best order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Uncerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disenfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Biliary, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

LIFE-GIVING PILLS!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which a patient is suffering and so invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A VERY FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state.—To the young and middle-aged they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific and sterling medicine. An Eternal Spring!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show in our known fact, that magic that made it fair.

THESE FAMOUS REMEDIES

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold at bay, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity the offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILLIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their aim at magic influence is felt at once; and the actual concomitants of the most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed dose to the youngest babe.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not treat external symptoms, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil!

COTTON GINS,

MANUFACTURED BY

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.,

COLUMBUS, GA.

WE have received the manufacture of Cotton Gins in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders by 1st June next. As we shall not be, as heretofore, represented by traveling agents, parties wishing our Gins, will confer a favor by sending in their orders at an early day. As owing to the demand, we shall be unable to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents, as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of ready pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice or commendation; we believe they are unrivalled in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely: Speed light draught and good sample.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when parties have steam or good water power, to give them the necessary speed. In all cases when this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. If, however, indifferent or insufficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.

Columbus, Ga., April 24 '66

We will give prompt attention to orders for the above celebrated Gins from any part of the State. The price is five dollars ($5) per Saw at the Factory, and five dollars for each Gin will only be charged to purchasers for transportation to this point.

WHITE SULPHUR AND CHALYBEATE SPRINGS.

THE UNDERSIGNED has the satisfaction of announcing to the public, that he has leased these celebrated Springs, and that they will be opened for the reception of visitors on the first day of June ensuing.

His arrangements are of that complete and extensive character, that he will be able to accommodate a large number of guests and to offer greater attractions than usual to those who may visit

This pleasant and healthful resort,

No trouble or expense will be spared to render his patrons comfortable and satisfied.

The grounds are elegantly laid off, and the buildings are enlarged and improved.

He will have ICE, MILK, VEGETABLES, and all the substantials and delicacies of the table in profusion.

An ICE CREAM SALOON and SODA FOUNTAIN will be attached to the establishment, where those refreshments, as well as CONFECTIONERY, Fruits &c., can be always obtained.

The bar will be supplied with the finest liquors, and a billiard saloon and bowling alley, for amusement and exercise, be at the disposal of visitors.

The Medicinal Properties

Of the Sulphur water have been amply tested during many years by a large number of visitors, and its beneficial results strikingly displayed in the cure or relief of

Another Spring has been discovered in the vicinity of the establishment, an accurate scientific analysis of which [given below] proves that it is a valuable Chalybeate. It is a mild and gentle tonic, and in the opinion of the physicians who have examined it, and witnessed its effects in some cases during several seasons, must prove beneficial in Atonic Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Uterine, Nervous and Neuralgic Affections connected with Debility; and of especial service to persons living in malarious regions of country, whose blood has been robbed of its normal proportion of iron by repeated attacks of malarial fevers.

Persons travelling on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad will always find a line of stages, under the management of Mr. Granger, ready for their accommodation at Warrenton Depot. There will be a daily mail from Warrenton to the Springs.

COPY RIGHT SECURED.

"A Calendar for the Christian Era, combining the Julian and Gregorian modes of reckoning time, by James Rumley, of N. C.

The subscriber having copy-righted this most valuable of all the "Calendars" ever before offered to the public, will be prepared in a few days to supply the demand for them to any extent.

Many attempts have been made, from time to time, to secure a Calendar, by which all the dates of the Christian Era could be accurately, and at the same time readily, found. These attempts have heretofore signally failed because the authors have sought to condense too much, and because they were really not conversant with the subject of which they treated, and which they vainly endeavored to elucidate.

I claim for the Calendar now presented, perfect simplicity of arrangement, combined with the most infallible accuracy. The plan is so simple that any one who can use an ordinary Almanac, or Counting House Calendar, cannot fail to see clearly into the working of this. Time past, present or future can be immediately found. Its accuracy will bear the test of the most rigid scrutiny. I invite criticisms, and confidently appeal to an enlightened public judgment for a frank expression of opinion as to its merits.

To supply a want long felt, the author has appended to the Calendar, under the head of "Explanatory Remarks," a succinct, but most valuable history of the Julian Calendar from the time of Julius Cæsar, and of the astronomical causes which led to the change made by Pope Gregory XIII, in 1582. These notes alone are worth the price of the Calendar.

If any object to the space the Calendar occupies, the objection is answered by the reply that any attempt at condensation would be a sacrifice of simplicity, the fatal rock on which every previous attempt has been stranded.

Every professional man, every mechanic and farmer, all merchants and tradesmen should supply themselves with copies, at once Price $1.

NOTICE,

OF

Importance to all whom it may concern.

—READ,—

The undersigned, Agent of the ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY for the State of North Carolina, would respectfully inform those who represent deceased friends, insured in this Company, to apply at my office for the settlement of Policies, as soon as they can conveniently do so.

MR. JUSTUS KINSEY'S death has been announced in our community. He was one of our most worthy citizens and active business men and took the precaution, in time, to provide for his now sorrowing loved ones by an Insurance on his life for $5,000 in the gallant "Ætna," which has never refused to pay a loss promptly. And in this case the persons authorised to receive the amount will please present themselves and the policy at my office for payment.

Here we are furnished with an example of prudent forethought worthy of imitation by each and all who have hearts to love, and hands to provide for their dependent loved ones. The investment of $150 has provided

No man should neglect a transaction so important.

WM. H CROW, Gen'l Agent,
For the Ætna Life Insurance Company.
